Wouldn't you like to have an index to S&C at your fingertips? You can with the Science and Children Index Apple II disk. You no longer have to page through old journal copies to find that great idea you saw but can't remember where. The annotated index gives the user direct access to all articles, authors, and topics that have appeared in Science and Children from September 1982 through May 1985. Searches are quick and easy using title, author, subject, or source.

The disk with tutorial and user's manual, sells for $20.00 with quantity discounts available. Prepay your orders and save a postage and handling charge. Billed orders are welcome but will incur a $2.00 postage & handling fee. Send your orders to NSTA, Special Publications, 1742 Connecticut Ave. N.W., Washington, DC 20009.
